CONGRESS CONVENES

Opening Day of the Second Session.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE READ.

A Number of Bills Introduced and Referred - Nothing of Any Importance Done in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Dec. 2.—The continuous hum of conversation rose from the floor of the hall of the house of representatives to the crowded galleries all through the half hour yesterday that preceded the time for the assembling of the second session of the Fifty-second congress. There was a good attendance congress. There was a good attendance on both sides of the hall and much good natured badinage about the recent election flew across the central aisle. On the desk of the speaker was a pyramid of flowers, and there were other floral pieces on the desks of Representatives Kerr of Pennsylvania, Holman. Harmer, Flick, Wilson of West Virginia, Atkinson of West Virginia, Vaux and Flower.

One minute before noon the speaker entered the hall and mounted the steps to the speaker's chair. The tap of his gavel brought the house o order as the hands of the clock marked noon. Chaplain Milburn delivered a brief prayer and then the clerk began to call the roll by states. ly states.

At the finish of the roll call the newly elected members were sworn in.

A committee was then appointed to wait upon the president and inform him that the house was ready to receive any message he might have for that body.

A recess was then taken until 1:30. During the recess, pages were kept busy carrying into the chamber hand-some floral designs, and many desks were completely hidden beneath their perfumed burdens.

At the expiration of the recess the committee (consisting of Mr. Cannon and O'Neil of Pennsylvania, and Mills) appointed to wait upon the president, announced that that officer would communicate with congress forthwith. A few moments later, Mr. Pruden, one of the president's sec etaries, was annot n ed, the president's annual message was received, and it was immediately

At the conclusion of the prayer, Senater Hoar sent to the desk of the presiding officer the credentials of Senatorelect Carey, of the new state of Wyoming. They were read at length. Mr. Hoar then sent up the credentials of Mr. Carey's colleague, Mr. Warren, which were read. The two senators were then led to the desk of the presiding officer, where Vice President Morton read the oath to them from a printed slip which he held in his left hand. While this reception was being held, Senator Edmunds offered in succession two resolutions, to which the senate agreed. One of them declared noon the regular hour of meeting and the other directed the secretary of the senate to inform the house of representatives that the senate was assembled. A resolution offered by Mr. Cullom for a committee of two to wait on the president was agreed to. Mr. Hoar then offerel a resolution to proceed to determine by lot to what classes the two new senators should belong. The numbers 1, 2 and 3 were put in a box together and Mr. Carey drew 2 and Mr. Warren 1. The term of Mr. Carey, therefore, will expire in 1895, and that of Mr. Warren in 1893.

The senate then took a recess to 1:30, to await the report of the committee appointed to call on the president. At 1:50 Vice President Morton called the senate to order. A minute later the committee appointed to wait on the president, Senators Cullom and Harris, appeared in the center aisle, and Senator Cullom announced that the president city it is not known if Mrs. Culbertson's would communicate with the senate in writing. Executive Clerk Pruden then entered the door and, addressing the presiding officer, delivered the package containing the president's annual message. It was carried to the desk by Capt. Bassett and opened by the chief clerk. Secretary McCook began im-mediately to read it. Most of the senators of both parties remained in their seats and listened carefully to the reading of the document. The reading of the message occupied one hour and firteen minutes, and at the conclusion of its reading the senate adjourned.

There were about 500 persons employed in the mill, all of whom escaped in safety when the fire started.

Incendiaries at Work.

Nashua, N. H., Dec. 2.—Fire in Besom's block yesterday afternoon caused a loss of $60,000. A second fire occurred in C. A. Lefiburn's laundry on Water street, doing $1,500 damage.

A dastardly attempt was made last night by incendiaries to set fire to the postoffice building, a kerosene lamp being broken in the out-house, and a fire was started at the baser..ent of the engine house while the firmen were at work outside. Eath fires were discovered in time to prevent much loss There is much excitement over these att mpts at incendiarism.

Late last night fire was discovered in the basement of the First Baptist church, an incendiary having broken the back windows, filled a box with inflammable material and applied the torch. The damage was but light.

Boston, Dec. 2.-W. W. Briggs & Company's grain elevator was burned last night, with 10,000 bushels of corn gins and Saunders were decrated with and 700 bags of meal. Loss estimated at $25,000.

ELLIS MILLER HANGED.

Another Legal Execution in the Annex of the Ohio Penitentiary. COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 2.—Ellis Miller. of Union county, was hanged in the annex of the penitentiary here shortly after midnight last night. Miller remained cool and firm to the last, and died with a "God bless you all; I hope to meet you in heaven" on his lips. He dropped seven feet six inches, and did not make a perceptible motion of either Johnson placed the written oath before each of them, and they signed it. Then they walked unescorted to their desks, seven minutes after the drop fell before seven minutes after the drop fell before life was pronounced extinct by the physicians; death having resulted from strangulation.

Miller's case was never brought before the state board of pardons, and but little effort was made to save his life after sentence had been pronounced. His crime was peculiarly heartless and cold-blooded, and without any of the circumstances which often mitigate the commission of murder. He had been a cruel husband, dissipated and worthless for many years, and finally in his drunken frenzy drove his wife from home. She took refuge with her sister, who lived near by, and the fact that this sister gave shelter to his wife brought upon her the enmity of Miller. Passing the house Miller met his sister-in-law and, without a word of warning, shot her so seriously that she died within a few hours. His arrest, trial, conviction and finally his execution last night were the result of his bloody deed.

Stole $1,200 Worth of Diamonds. NEW ALBANY, Ind., Dec. 2.-The residence of Samuel S. Culbertson, cashier of the First National bank, was entered by a burglar at 10 o'clock Sunday night, and as yet it is impossible to tell how much was stolen. It is known that $60 in money was taken, but as the members of the family are absent from the jewels were taken. The jewel case is missing, and it is known to have contained $1,200 worth of diamonds. There is conclusive evidence that Charles Hamilton was the thief, as he was employed as coachman. A reward is offered for his capture. He is about five feet ten inches in height and of light complexion. He has left the city suddenly.

Nervy Thieves.

WHEELING, W. Va., Dec. 2.—Satnrday night thieves entered the state penitentiary at Moundsville, by scaling the walls with a rope, broke open the broom factory office of Weaver & Bardall. blew open their safe and stole $15.75, all blew open their safe and stole $15.75, all there was in it, and taking a quantity of valuable stock, leather, fine wire, etc., made their exit the way they got in. All the night guards were on duty. It is snpposed the thieves were ex-convicts, who knew all about the interior of the prison. The burglary was not discovered till morning. BILLIARD CONTEST.

Schaefer Beats Slosson for the World's Championship.

NEW YORK, Dec. 2.-The 800 point, fourteen-inch balk line billiard contest between Jacob Schaefer and George Slosson, which has been the chief topic among billiard lovers for several weeks, took place last night at Chickering hall, in the presence of fully 2,000 persons. The match was for $1,000 stake money, a silver cup emblematic of the world's championship, and the gate money. Both men appeared to be in good condition. Maurice Daly was referee and Bud i Schofield marker.

The game was rather tedius for the first few innings, both men playing very cautiously and appearing nervous. Schaefer, however, woke up in the seventh inning, and after a series of brilliant open-table shots, got the balls together and nursed them for 87 points. Slosson followed, and by careful play rolled up 41. Schaefer thereafter played both a brilliant and steady game and gradually but surely drew away from Slosson, who could not seem to gather himself and do justice.

NATURAL GAS EXPLOSION.

A Pipe Line Bursts Affecting the Supply

DAYTON, Dec. 2.—The accident on the Mercer county pipe line that deprived this city of natural gas two days last week occurred on S. B. Freshour's farm near Covington, Miami county, about twenty-six miles north of here. A section of the twelve-inch main, twentyone and three-quarter feet, burst with a terrific report that was heard for miles, and the farmers of all that neighborhood were greatly alarmed, fearing a general blow-up.

At the instant of the explosion a great blue cloud of gas shot into the air and spread over the farm like an umbrella. The heavy pipe was ripped its full length, bent into V shape, thrown seventy-five feet up, then falling, buried itself eighteen inches in the ground. The scene was like that of a volcano in eruption, scattering clods of earth and dust and lead from the couplings over the area of an acre, and leaving an open trench or crater nearly one hundred feet long. This left only an eightinch pipe line to supply Dayton, Piqua, Troy, Springfield, the National milit. home and state insane asylum. The small line being then overtaxed, an ac-cident resulted that still further crippled the supply of these cities and institutions.

RARE SURGICAL OPERATION.

But for the Age of the Patient It Would Have Been Successful.

The operation, which is the fifth of the kind on record, was performed by Dr. Wishard, of Indianapolis, and Drs. Banker, McLeod, Hawley, Butler and Norton, of this city. A stone the size of a guinea egg was taken, while the entire lining of the organ was found covered by a calcareous substance, which was removed with some difficulty. The extreme age and the advanced stage of the disease were against the patient's chances of recovery, and he passed quietly away.

THE voting of that appropriation of $20,000 will not create a debt of that amount at once. It simply gives the City Council the right to donate aid to that extent to secure new manufacturing enterprises, and these new enterprises must be located within the corporate limits. For example: The proprietors of a factory employing from twenty to thirty hands are ready to move their plant here for $2,000, giving ample security for the performance of their contract. If their proposition should be accepted they would receive the $2,000 only when they had moved their factory here and had got it in operation. And then only would the $2,000 be added to the city's indebtedness. The city will not be out anything until she has new enterprises to show for it.

By invitation of our fellow citizen, S. D. Rigdon and wire, quite a goodly number of young people, with a lew married ones, assembled at their residence last Friday evening to meet and form the acquaintance of Mr. Brooks, a worthy young man of Cincinnati, who has been the guest of the family for several days. After some time spent with music, games and other amusements the company were invited to the spacious dining room to sit down to a table well filled with all the luxuries of the season, gotten up and served in that elegant style for which the lady of the hours pass that it was near midnight before the company separated, each one feeling that it was good to be there, and with pleasant memories of the family and their honored guest. FIRST IN LOW PRICES.

FIRST IN QUALITIES.

FIRST IN THE INTERESTS OF THE PEOPLE.

We are the first in low prices because we have the advantage of getting quantity discounts, in addition to cash discounts, and give our customers the benefit of these.

We are first in qualities because we have the whole field of manufacturers to select from; we cull from the very best of these, and the world cannot surpass them. This makes us first hands to the people---we are no "middle man"---our customers get from us the benefits of the profits of the "middle man." We do not buy of jobbers. We know no middle condition. The "middle man" is a relic of the mass-covered past of the moss-covered past We are first in the interests of the people because our system, from which we never vary, of necessity works to their interest. Our unalterable rule is cash and one price. We treat all alike in respect to prices. We charge Mr. Smith, who has no Bank account, just the same for a pair of shoes that we charge Mr. Jones, the coupon clipper, for a similar pair. We do not burden the people with debts We have no credit customers of the "good" class to saddle with .

percentage for delinquencies, making them carry our bad debts. We have no shelf-worn goods, no "crabs" or "trash." Our goods are new; we do not permit them to get old---our prices force them to go.

The cheapest, the newest, the best. Come and see us; we will save you money.

Kentuckians as Fighters

Professor N. S. Shaler, in his ethnographic researches, sought the record of a body of troops whose ancestors had been for many generations upon American soil, and he found it in the first brigade of Kentucky troops (Confederate). In Scribner's he says: "On May 7, 1864, this brigade, then in the army of General Joseph Johnston, marched out of Dalton 1,140 strong, at the beginning of the great retreat upon Atlanta before the army of Sherman. In the subsequent hundred days, or until September 1, the brigade was almost continuously in action or on the march. In this period the men of the command received 1,860 death or hospital wounds, the dead counted as wounds, and but one wound being counted for each visitation of the hospital. At the end of this time there were less than 50 men who had not been wounded during the hundred days There were 240 men left for duty, and less than 10 men deserted. A search into the history of warlike exploits has failed to show me any endurance of the worst trials of war surpassing this."

Held Over.

Thomas Carr, of Chester, charged with breaking open a C. & O. freight car and stealing a lot of oysters, cigars and other goods, had his examining trial yesterday afternoon and was held to answer at the next term of the Circuit Court. In default of bail in the sum of $300 he was

The Stampede of the Rosebud Indians Complete.

MARCHING INTO BAD LANDS.

They Will Then Probably Halt and Defy the Soldiers to Stop Their Ghost Dancing-Many Horses and Cattle Stolen by the Marauders.

PINE RIDGE AGENCY, S. Dak., Dec. 2.—The stampede of Rosebud Indians is now complete. Emboldened by the inactivity of the military, the Sioux from the old Spotted Tail agency have crossed White river and are moving north along the stream to the hills. The redskins are so near the Bad lands it would not take them long to get into the barren fastnesses at the first approach of the troops, and by traveling slowly along the river they can get good grazing for their stock.

In their stampede the Indians have swept all the ranches in the White, Clay, and Wounded Knee country. Hun- ercises. Many of the Little rendered very interesting by an outline Wound's people are with the Rosebuds. Little Wound is not with the party, which is now reported to be 4,000 strong. The troops have not yet received orders to move on the marauders.

These Bad lands begin at the mouth of Wounded Knee creek, of which so much has been heard of late, and which is the gathering point for all these hostiles and where the ghost dance started upon this reservation. They run 110 miles northeast to southwest and fifty miles east to west. It is an utterly barren region of precipitous canons and fantastic and ghostly formations. Few white men are acquainted with the region, the Indians, however, knowing it thoroughly. The fact that it is possible for the Indians, when once established there as they now are, to continue making raids upon the settlers adjoining the Bai lands, will certainly, it would seem, induce the soldiers to push into the region after this big colored race is an important factor in our thieving band of rebels, notwithstand national welfare.

The scouts that brought information concerning this latest plan of the hostiles also said that the latter had just slaughtered 500 head of government cattle and 300 belonging to Governor The court of South Calculations of South Mellette, of South Dakota. The scouts saw this beef being hauled in wagon and pack trains to the new camp in the Bad lands. Many wagon loads of flour and other provisions that had been stolen from the settlers were also headed dian troubles are causing much alarm to the settlers at remote places west of here. Citizens of Belfield, twenty miles west, were surprised yesterday to see settlers with their families coming in from all directions. They were all very scared, having heard that the Indians were camped on Grand river, fifty miles south. The situation was so alarming that a leading citizen arrived here from Belfield to consult with the authorities and learn the truth of the situation.

There is good autho ity for saying that bands of Indians are congregating on the Grand river and are acting and a delegation will be sent to nature seeming, kindly, to provide a confer with the governor. This place is remedy for every defect. But, its absence try consisting of several ranchmen, several miles apart. Should the Indians commence depredations they could cause great havoc. A mass meeting is called at the court house here to-morrow night to take action looking toward protec-

Two Indians Lynched.

MINNEAPOLIS, Dec. 2.—The Journal's Chamberlain, S. Dak., special says: Two squaw men living on Bad river were lynched several days ago. Cattle stealing has been going on, and investigation pointed to the squaw men as the guilty parties. The vigilance committee has been carrying things with a high hand for some time, and there is considerable excitement.

Crossing the Boundary.

WINNIPEG, Man., Dec. 2.—It is probable that the Canadian Indians are aware of what the Indians in Dakota and Nebraska are doing at the present time and that they are cognizant of the Messiah craze. The Sioux Indians at Regina say they are all going to move to the other side of the boundary because all the Sioux had to meet at a certain place.

Buffalo Bill's Long Ride.

Mandan, N. Dak., Dec. 2.—Buffalo Bill and White Beaver, the famous scouts, reached here in a driving snow storm. They had ridden nearly one hundred miles since Saturday afternoon. They refuse to communicate news, except that Sitting Bull's braves are still dancing and sullen.

SCHOOL NOTES.

D VER ECHOOL NO. 2.

Here we found a school with a city air about it. A fine brick school house, commodious and well arranged, with three large rooms occupied by Professor R. H. Dodson and Miss Lettie Evans. The trustees are J. J. McMillan, John S.

Wilson and Samuel Mowers.
Professor Dodson is a teacher with eleven years' experience and knows well how to conduct a school in the most approved manner. His school is composed of excellent material. Classes in U.S. History and in physiology gave excellent recitations showing by the readiness with which they answered questions thorough familiarity with the subject before them. The order and deportment of this school were all that can be desired. He governs with firmness, but with kindness and the relation seeming to exist between teacher and pupils showed they were in perfect accord.

Miss Lettie Evans is the a sistant and has a large room, filled by her pupils She has her hands full and is a conscientious, laborious teacher. Indeed it is a matter of wonder how she gets through with all the work devolving upon her within the prescribed time for school exdrawing on the blackboard of the continents of North and South America, giving outlines of the land surface, bodies of water &c. Miss Evans is kept under a severe a rain upon the pervous force and it would be a good thing if a sub-assistant were provided to relieve her in part of her work.

DOVER SCHOOL NO 106, COLCRED.

This is an excellent school taught by Miss Florence Taylor who is thoroughly versed in modern methods of teaching. Her scholars showed good progress. We were very much interested to hear the children sing several songs, which is an admirable exercise to divert and rest the scholars. Several recitations from memory-one very goodindeed of Bryant's "The Melancholy Days Have Come"

Miss Taylor is doing good work and she is performing a good work for her people. The education and cultivation of the

We heard recitations in read ing embracing all the readers to the sixth. A class in arithmetic-all these recitations were good. MINERVA SCHOOL NO. 105.

This school is in charge of Miss Marilla Taylor who is teaching her first session. She is an educated and well trained teacher and evidently acquainted with modern methods. The recitations we heard were altogether satisfactory. The school labors under great disadvantage from not having a suitable house and play ground. The house occupied is altogether iradequate and the scholars can not do as well as otherwise they would, while they are crowded too closely. The small cabin stands upoh borrowed ground-so this arrangement will cease G. W. BLATTTERMAN, speedily. Superintendent.

No Place Else to Go. [Washington Mirror.]

There lives out in Joe Cannon's district in Illinois an old farmer who is a zealous Republican—one of the red-hot partisan stripe. When he heard of Cannon's defeat, he said to his wife, who is one of those women who obey their lord and master blindly:

"Mary, pack up everything. I'm go-

"Why?" asked Mary.

"Because Joe Cannon is beat and l won't live in a Democratic district." "Very well," said Mary, with a little

Then the old man went to town to sell his farm. There he heard all the election news. He returned home, and entering the house said:

"Mary, you can quit packing up. ain't a-going to move."
"Why?" inquired Mary.
"Because," he replied sadly, "there's no place to move to." When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria. When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria, When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.
